

If you have enjoyed your visit here today, you should check out the other great museums, heritage sites and aircraft-themed attractions across the South East of England.

More pictures and a map on the website

We hope you are inspired to visit some more of the great attractions within the South East Aviation Heritage Network area. You can find out more about them via the website at mahn.org.uk/south-east, where there is a useful map and links to the individual attractions' websites.

The South East Aviation Heritage Network exists to protect and promote the many historic sites in the area known as '11 Group' during World War Two. 11 Group, formed in 1936, was the first RAF Fighter Command group to be set up and was tasked with the air defence of Southern England, including London. It achieved fame during the Battle of Britain when, because of its position, it bore the brunt of the Luftwaffe's aerial attacks.

Most of the attractions listed in this leaflet are charities and many of them are run by volunteers. All of them work hard to provide a great day out and would welcome your support. Take a look at the great range of locations in this leaflet and start planning your next day out!
